

VOLKSWAGEN

AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT

---

Appendix to the Principles and Guidelines for Global Government Affairs

2014

Structure of Global Government Affairs (schematic representation)

<sup>1</sup> Volkswagen AG Group EU Representation/VGS

---

The Volkswagen Group is a member of organisations such as:

Organisation

ACEA (European Automobile Manufacturer's Association), Brussels

American Chamber of Commerce in Germany e.V., Frankfurt am Main

Atlantik-Brücke e.V., Berlin

Biodiversity in Good Company e.V., Berlin

CSR Europe, Brussels

econsense – Forum Nachhaltige Entwicklung der Deutschen Wirtschaft e.V., Berlin

EITI (Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative), Oslo

ICC (International Chamber of Commerce), Paris

United Nations Global Compact, New York

VDA (Verband der Automobilindustrie e. V.), Berlin

WBCSD (World Business Council for Sustainable Development), Geneva

---

Information on the established event formats at Global Government Affairs

Trip for Diplomats	Information trip for diplomats to Volkswagen sites, aimed at informing them about industrial manufacturing processes at Volkswagen and strengthening economic ties with the participants' countries. 20 to 30 participants from the Diplomatic Corps of embassies in Germany. Takes place once a year at different venues. Organised in cooperation with the Foreign Federal Office and Autostadt.
Global Breakfast	Information event about the international commitment of the Volkswagen Group and its brands, combined with current topics and issues of specific political relevance; each Global Breakfast is dedicated to one specific brand in the Volkswagen Group. 90 to 100 participants from parliament, industry and ministerial offices. Takes place several times a year in Berlin.
Staff Trip	Information event about industrial manufacturing processes in the automotive industry as well as future-related topics of specific relevance to the automobile; each event includes visit to a Volkswagen site. 20 to 30 staff employed by members of the German Bundestag. Takes place once a year at different venues.

Mobile Dialogue	Public discussion forum for topics relating to transport and the environment. 60 to 120 participants from parliaments, trade associations, organisations, authorities and scientific institutions. Takes place once a year at different venues. Documentation available at www.volkswagen-nabu.de. Organised in cooperation with Germany's Nature And Biodiversity Conservation Union (NABU).
	Semi-public background discussion on current topics relating to transport and the environment. Up to 12 participants from non-governmental organisations. Takes place once a year at different venues. Organised in cooperation with Germany's Nature And Biodiversity Conservation Union (NABU).
Parliamentary Breakfast	Information event for local members of the German Bundestag on current developments at the Volkswagen Group. 20 to 30 Members of Parliament representing a constituency which includes a Volkswagen production site. Takes place once a year in Berlin.
Volkswagen Group's New Year Reception	Evening reception to position the Volkswagen Group as a partner for dialogue with European policy-makers in Brussels. 100 to 200 participants from EU institutions, European associations and companies, representatives of civil society and journalists. Takes place once a year in Brussels.

Information on political party events supported by Global Government Affairs/Advertising budget (1/2)

Support for political party events in 2014
Party	Support in €
CDU (Christian Democratic Union)	54,000.00
SPD (Social Democratic Party)	37,000.00
FDP (Free Democratic Party)	13,000.00
Total	104,000.00

In 2014, support for events of three political parties totalled €104,000.00 €. The aim of political party sponsoring is to generate public awareness for the company and its projects. Die Grünen (Alliance 90/The Greens) or DIE LINKE (The Left) did not approach Volkswagen with similar offers in 2014.

Information on political party events supported by Global Government Affairs/Advertising budget (2/2)

2014 advertising budget for party-affiliated publications
Party	Budget in €<sup>1</sup>
CDU/CSU (Christian Democratic Union/Christian Social Union)	43,500.00
SPD (Social Democratic Party)	37,500.00
GRÜNE (Alliance 90/The Greens)	12,500.00
FDP (Free Democratic Party)	10,000.00
Total	103,500.00

<sup>1</sup> Volkswagen Group advertising budget

Based on the number of seats won by the political parties for the 18th German Bundestag (election in September 2013). The funding key of 72% for Volkswagen and 28% for Audi is based on the German market share of 21.6% for VW und 8.5% for Audi in the first half of 2013.

VOLKSWAGEN

AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT

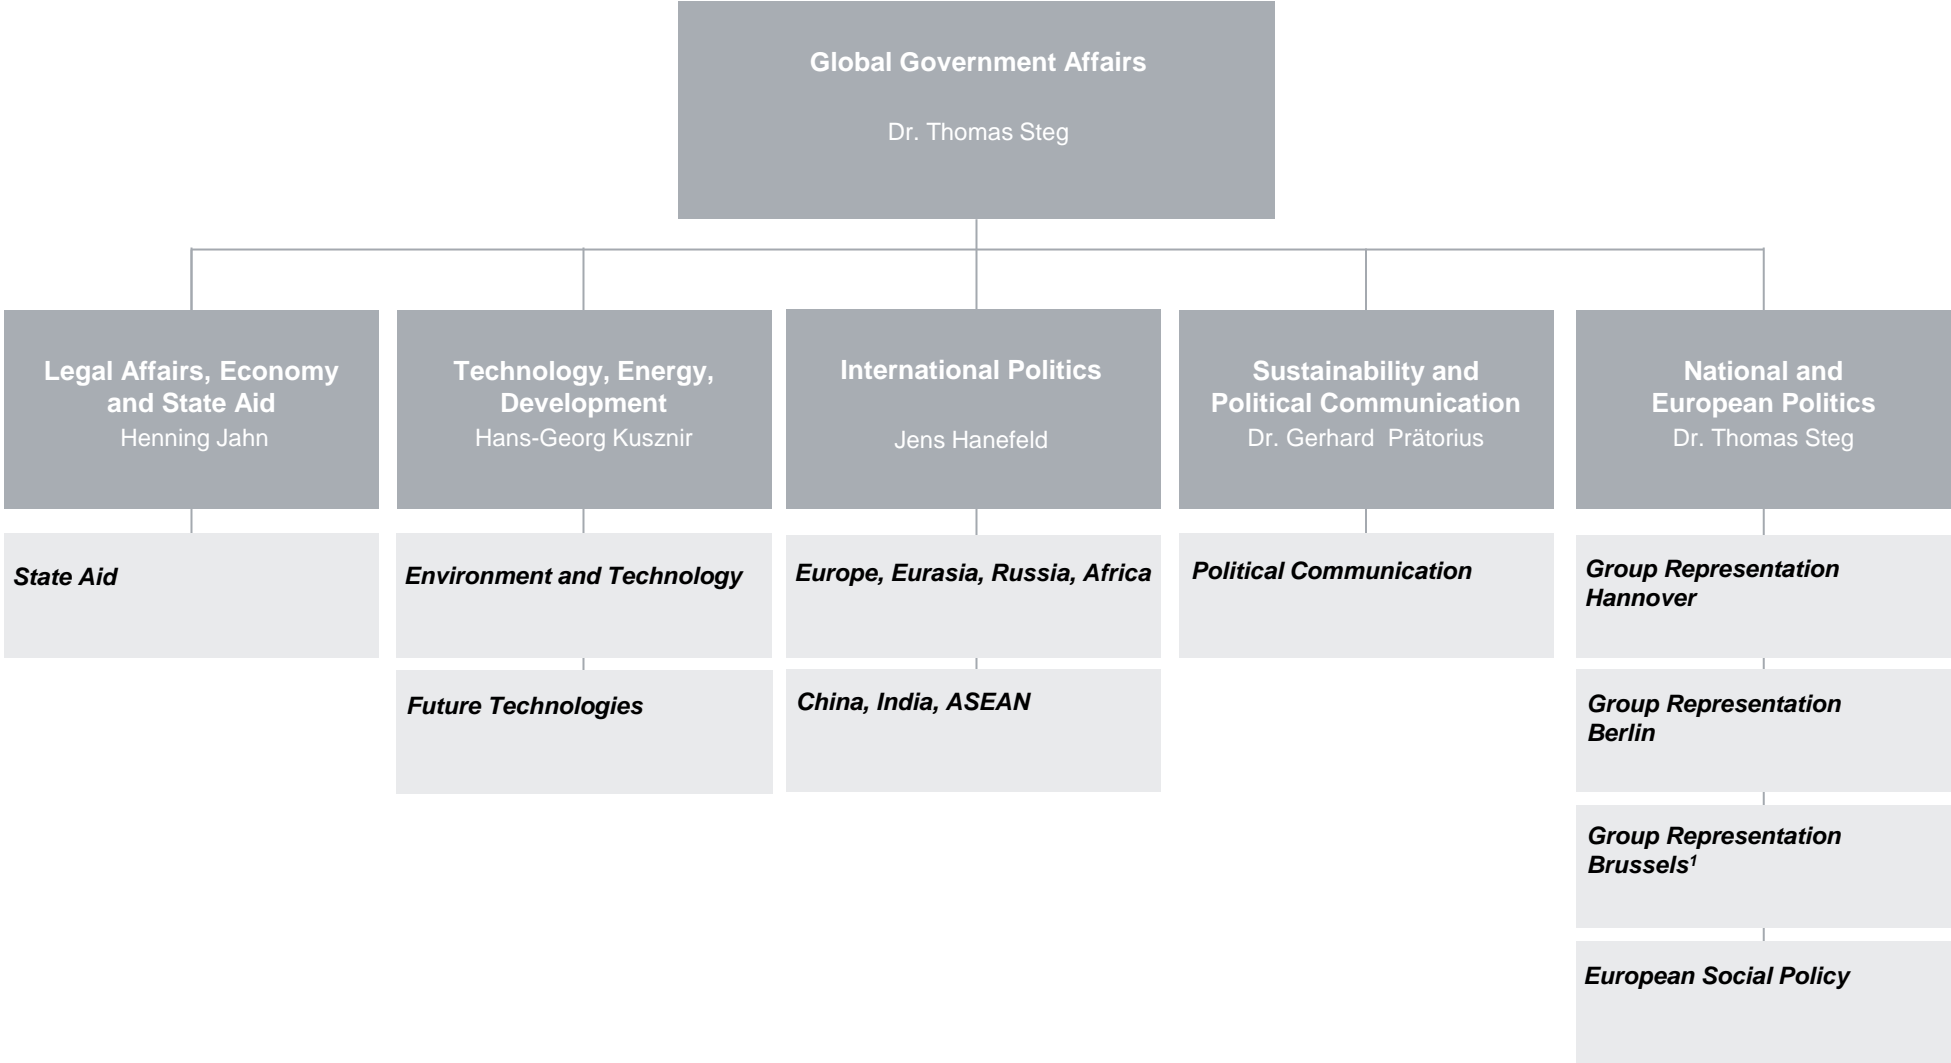

---

Appendix to the Principles and Guidelines for Global Government Affairs

2015

Structure of Global Government Affairs (schematic representation)

<sup>1</sup> Volkswagen AG Group EU Representation/VGS

---

The Volkswagen Group is a member of organisations such as:

Organisation

ACEA (European Automobile Manufacturer's Association), Brussels

American Chamber of Commerce in Germany e.V., Frankfurt am Main

Atlantik-Brücke e.V., Berlin

Biodiversity in Good Company e.V., Berlin – in abeyance

CSR Europe, Brussels

econsense – Forum Nachhaltige Entwicklung der Deutschen Wirtschaft e.V., Berlin

EITI (Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative), Oslo

ICC (International Chamber of Commerce), Paris

United Nations Global Compact, New York – in abeyance

VDA (Verband der Automobilindustrie e. V.), Berlin

WBCSD (World Business Council for Sustainable Development), Geneva – in abeyance

---

Information on the established event formats at Global Government Affairs

Trip for Diplomats	Information trip for diplomats to Volkswagen sites, aimed at informing them about industrial manufacturing processes at Volkswagen and strengthening economic ties with the participants' countries. 20 to 30 participants from the Diplomatic Corps of embassies in Germany. Takes place once a year at different venues. Organised in cooperation with the Foreign Federal Office and Autostadt.
Global Breakfast	Information event about the international commitment of the Volkswagen Group and its brands, combined with current topics and issues of specific political relevance; each Global Breakfast is dedicated to one specific brand in the Volkswagen Group. 90 to 100 participants from parliament, industry and ministerial offices. Takes place several times a year in Berlin.
Staff Trip	Information event about industrial manufacturing processes in the automotive industry as well as future-related topics of specific relevance to the automobile; each event includes visit to a Volkswagen site. 20 to 30 staff employed by members of the German Bundestag. Takes place once a year at different venues.

Mobile Dialogue	Public discussion forum for topics relating to transport and the environment. 60 to 120 participants from parliaments, trade associations, organisations, authorities and scientific institutions. Takes place once a year at different venues. Documentation available at www.volkswagen-nabu.de. Organised in cooperation with Germany's Nature And Biodiversity Conservation Union (NABU).
	Semi-public background discussion on current topics relating to transport and the environment. Up to 12 participants from non-governmental organisations. Takes place once a year at different venues. Organised in cooperation with Germany's Nature And Biodiversity Conservation Union (NABU).
Parliamentary Breakfast	Information event for local members of the German Bundestag on current developments at the Volkswagen Group. 20 to 30 Members of Parliament representing a constituency which includes a Volkswagen production site. Takes place once a year in Berlin.
Volkswagen Group's New Year Reception	Evening reception to position the Volkswagen Group as a partner for dialogue with European policy-makers in Brussels. 100 to 200 participants from EU institutions, European associations and companies, representatives of civil society and journalists. Takes place once a year in Brussels.

Information on political party events supported by Global Government Affairs/Advertising budget (1/2)

Support for political party events in 2015
Party	Support in €
CDU (Christian Democratic Union)	31,500.00
SPD (Social Democratic Party)	37,960.00
GRÜNE (Alliance 90/The Greens)	4,000.00
FDP (Free Democratic Party)	10,000.00
Total	83,460.00

In 2015, support for events of three political parties totalled € 83.460,00. The aim of political party sponsoring is to generate public awareness for the company and its projects. DIE LINKE (The Left) did not approach Volkswagen with similar offers in 2015.

Information on political party events supported by Global Government Affairs/Advertising budget (2/2)

2015 advertising budget for party-affiliated publications
Party	Budget in €<sup>1</sup>
CDU/CSU (Christian Democratic Union/Christian Social Union)	43,500,00
SPD (Social Democratic Party)	37,500.00
GRÜNE (Alliance 90/The Greens)	12,500.00
FDP (Free Democratic Party)	10,000.00
Total	103,500.00

<sup>1</sup> Volkswagen Group advertising budget

Based on the number of seats won by the political parties for the 18th German Bundestag (election in September 2013). The funding key of 72% for Volkswagen and 28% for Audi is based on the German market share of 21.6% for VW und 8.5% for Audi in the first half of 2013.